The weekend of October 6th / 7th we are marking the end of the Christian Churches 'Season of Creation'. All Mass this weekend will have the theme of 'Care for our Common Home'. We will also be giving thanks for the gifts of the earth as we celebrate Autumn and Harvest. We urgently need to find solutions to the crisis facing our common home. We are living beyond our means and exhausting creation for ourselves and our children.

At the 7.30p.m. Vigil Mass on Saturday evening 6th October we will be celebrating , in a special way.

You are invited to attend Mass as we all pray and search together to take bold action to preserve the gift we share.

Day for Life 2018:

Next Sunday, 7th October, is Day for Life, celebrated annually by the Catholic Church in Ireland, Scotland, England and Wales. It is a day dedicated to raising awareness about the meaning and value of human life at every stage and in every condition. The focus this year is human trafficking. The Catholic community can make a real difference to help solve this problem – to help victims find freedom and live life to the full. We encourage you to deepen your understanding of Catholic Social Teaching on this important question by exploring the material prepared by the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference on www.chooselife2018.ie/Day4Life/

First Friday:

Friday 5th October is the First Friday of the month. Confessions before all Masses.
