As we remember our deceased, imagine the following words from them to us:

I leave myself to your memory, with my love.
I leave my thoughts, my laughter, my dreams,
To you whom I have treasured beyond gold and precious gems.
I give you, what no thief can steal, the memories of our times together.
The tender, love-filled moments, the successes we have shared,
the hard times that brought us closer together
The roads we have walked side by side.
I also leave you a solemn promise that after
I am home in the bosom of God,
I will still be present, whenever and wherever you call on me.
My energy will be drawn to you by the magnet of our love.
Whenever you are in need, call me: I will come to you with my arms full of wisdom and light to open up your blocked paths, to untangle your knots and be your avenue to God.
