Living in Hope

It is time we stopped talking of despair and started living in hope.

It is time that we started reading and hearing more of the good that people can do for themselves and for others.

There are far more good Samaritans in this world than there are destroyers.

We must not let the public pessimism of a few destroy the optimism of many.

It is this flame that will illuminate hope for all people.

It is this hope that will bring about a new and better world.

Easter is a protest against despair and dejection.

Faith in the resurrection means—not resigning oneself to the 'hard facts' - refusing to put up with the status quo and what, humanly speaking, is feasible. (Source Unknown).

Easter Greetings to All

To all who are confined to their home and nursing homes.

To all our school communities especially those disappointed when Confirmation and First Penance had to be postponed and to all who are worried about exams .

To families as you cope with new realities.

To all those who are ill or feel burdened in any way.

To the many people who serve us in so many ways.

May the Easter Greeting of Peace bring Blessings and Healing to you all.

We keep you in our prayers.

Fr. Gerry and Fr. Jonas

Dear Lord, so far today I've done all right. I haven't gossiped, lost my temper, been nasty, greedy, overbearing, selfish or obnoxious. I'm really glad I've accomplished all these things on my own. But in a few minutes, Lord, I'm going to have to get out of bed and from that point on I'm going to need all the help I can get from you . Amen
