God of my life, I welcome this new day.
It is your gift to me, a new creation
I thank you for the grace of being alive this morning.
I thank you for the sleep which has refreshed me.
I thank you for this chance to make a new beginning.
This day, Lord, is full of promise and of opportunity.
Let me to waste none of it.
This day is full of mystery and of the unknown.
Help me to face it without fear or anxiety.
This day is blessed with beauty and adventure.
Make me to be fully alive to it all.
During this day, keep me thoughtful, prayerful,
and kind.
May I be courteous and helpful to others, and not turned in on myself.
When night comes, may I look back on this day with no
grief, or bitterness, in my heart.
And may nobody be unhappy because of anything
I have done or anything I have failed to do.
Lord, bless this day for me and for everyone.
Make it a day in which we grow to have the mind of Christ your Son. Amen.

“We need to be a bit similar to others to understand them, but we need to be a bit different to others to love them.” (Paul Gerald)

Thank you to all who continue to drop their contribution envelopes into the letterboxes of the Presbytery and Parochial House we really appreciate it. If you wish you can use an ordinary envelope.
