Meditation on 'The Tree'

Lord, there are parts of me,
which when they are buried and unseen seem harmless
and perhaps innocent;
It is only when these deeply hidden parts of me begin to reveal themselves that it all becomes rather frightening.
There is enough to contend with in keeping a grip on things as they are, maybe I should get rid of these tangled knots.
But you are saying, Lord, that these very knots are a source of life to me, that I must learn to love and keep in touch with them.
If this is so, Lord, help me to be unafraid and courageous enough to accept these dark parts of myself, and to believe that you can give me life through their mysterious shapes.

Re—Opening For Mass:

After much consideration and deliberation we plan to open for Mass on Saturday 25th July for 7.30p.m. Vigil Mass and after that we plan to follow original Mass Times. We look forward to gathering even though numbers will be limited to 100 people. All will be in keeping with Government guideline and the health and safety of everybody. Things will be very different as we gather together again. We remind people that the duty to attend Sunday Mass is dispensed with for the moment. We encourage the vulnerable in our community to continue to watch on the webcam or on their television. We are in this together as we continue to be patient. We will publish guidelines for attending Mass next week-end.
