The Irish Hospice Foundation Bereavement Support Line

Have you been impacted by a bereavement during COVID-19? Are you finding it more difficult to cope with a pre-Covid bereavement at this time? Would it help to talk to someone in confidence about your loss? The Irish Hospice Foundation Bereavement Support Line is a national freephone service 1800 80 70 77 which is available from 10am to 1pm, Monday to Friday. The line aims to provide comfort and emotional support.

Thought:

“And then some....

These three little words are the secret to success.

They are the difference between average people and top people in most companies.

The top people always do what is expected.... and then some.

They are thoughtful of others; they are considerate and kind.... and then some.

They meet their responsibilities fairly and squarely.... and then some.

They are good friends and helpful neighbors.... and then some.

They can be counted on in an emergency...and then some.

I am thankful for people like this, for they make the world a better place.

Their spirit of service is summed up in these three little words... and then some.

If we carry the attitude of “And Then Some....” throughout our life, when our time on earth is almost gone, we will wait the results in peace.

Mass of Chrism :

Bishop Kevin will celebrate the Mass of Chrism on Wednesday 12th August at 4.00pm in the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, Sligo. As this is the Mass at which the priests of the diocese renew their commitment to their priestly ministry, the majority of places available under the Covid-19 restrictions will already be taken. We do wish to invite as many people as possible to join us in prayer as we bless the Oils which will be used in the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Orders and the Sick over the coming months. You can join the Mass online at

A new pilgrimage on Lough Derg's lakeshore. Walk and Pray in the Lough Derg tradition on 16, 18, 22, 26 & 30 August. At times in the 1600s and 1700s when Station Island was closed by the Penal Laws, pilgrims undertook a form of pilgrimage on the lough shore. Walk in their footsteps. Contact 0 (0353) 71 9861518 or info@loughderg.org for details. Numbers are limited. Advance booking essential.
