We Remember Them:

In the rising of the sun and it's going down, we remember them.

In the gush of the wind and in the chill of Winter, we name them.

In the opening of the buds and in the rebirthing of Spring, we call them,

In the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of Summer we honour them.

In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of Autumn, we thank them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we celebrate them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we whisper them.

When we are lost and lonely, we carry them.

When we have joys we yearn to share, we love them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are part of us, and we entrust them to our God of love and everlasting peace. Amen.

Remembering Our Dead

Over the last number of years on the weekend after 2nd November we focused in a special way in remembering our dead and praying for them and including those who have died in the past year.

On Sunday next 8th November at the 10.30a.m. the focus will be in praying for our dead. We will continue to do this at all masses during this month of November.

In accordance with Government guideline there won't be a public gathering for the rosary in the cemeteries this year.

We encourage people to visit the cemetery and pray.

November

We remember our loved ones who have gone from this life. We receive the grace of Indulgence by visiting a cemetery and praying for them from 1st to 8th November and we can also receive that indulgence by a visit to the church from 12 noon on All Saints Day November 1st to All Souls Day November 2nd and praying the Our Father and the Apostles Creed.

November Service of Prayer from the Cathedral

November Service of Prayer and Remembrance for the Dead and the Bereaved will be led by Bishop Kevin at 3pm in Sligo Cathedral this Sunday 1st November. We invite all to join us to pray for those who have died during the year and to comfort the bereaved in this most difficult of years. The prayer service will be streamed live at
