Remembering Our Dead

Everyone loves to be remembered.

But if we want to be remembered,

we have a duty to remember.

Memory is a powerful thing.

Wrongly used it can bring death rather than life.

Rightly used it can bring death of immortality.

It keeps the past alive.

Those we remember never die.

They continue to walk and talk with us.

Their influence is still felt among us.

There is nothing stronger or more helpful than a good remembrance.

To all our dead we say, we want you to know,

that we haven't forgotten you.

We remember you.

And your memory most definitely brings life to us today.

May it also assure us of life for you,

that eternal life Christ came on earth to give us.

The Lord is Our Hope – A Pastoral Message from Bishop Kevin:

"It has been, without doubt a very difficult and stressful year. Many people have lost loved ones and a great many more have been sick. I want you to know that you are always in my prayers and that, all over the Diocese, people are praying for you every day". Read Bishop Kevin's message in full on www.elphindiocese.ie
