This Is The Time:

In the Spring, it is my job to envision fruitfulness and commit to it. It is my task to breath in the air and perceive the earth and ripe, vulnerable seed, to grasp the possibility.

In Spring my work is to imagine and to dig and dig and feel and listen and smell and taste.

It is time to learn my desires and put them to work.

Spring is the time to test my strength and stretch my thoughts, to raise my arms, open my heart, invite sunlight, wind, downpour, silence, night, to participate, then, in the world waking up.

(Vinita Hampton).
