Reflection:

Many if not all great undertakings
begin in small and often hidden ways.

Seeds need the darkness, isolation and cover of the earth in order to germinate.

Therefore, for something to begin small, hidden, anonymous, is an advantage.

It means it can develop away from publicity.

There are no pressures. No burden of expectations.

It can develop at its own pace. There is no hurry.

Hurry ruins so many things.

Hence the importance of beginning,
of taking care of things in their beginnings,
of the small in the accomplishment of the great.

So, if there is something which we want to do,

Let us not hesitate and think too much.

Let us make a start, however small.

Let us take one step. Let us plant one seed.

Let us trust that if our cause is good,

God will support us, and it will grow and prosper.
