Thought:

May Lenten days of lengthening light, enlighten heart and mind.

Fasting made by choice, makes us ever kind,
thoughtful each of other, if one has nought in store.

For those who hunger, those who thirst, showing love and care.

Hungering for friendship, longing to be free,
help within relationship, we share in every need.

We journey through to Easter time, The Feast of Risen Life.

With renewing outlook, moving us to hope, love shared among us.

From wells that don't run dry.

Word and Meal and Sacrifice with gratitude to survive. (Rose Moran RSM)

Envelopes can be returned at all the Masses next weekend or returned to Sacristy or Parish Office.
