Communion Reflection:

Lord God,

as we come to share the richness of your table, we cannot forget the rawness of the earth.

We cannot take bread and forget those who are hungry.

Your world is one world. We are stewards of its food.

So put our prosperity at the service of the poor.

We cannot take wine and forget those who are thirsty.

The ground and the rootless,

the earth and its weary people cry out for justice.

So put our fullness at the service of the empty.

We cannot celebrate the feast of your family and forget our divisions.

We are one spirit, but not in fact.

History and hurt still dismember us.

Lord, heal your Church in every brokenness. (Wild Goose Resource Group)
