Second Sunday of Easter

Mercy:

A mother sought from Napoleon the pardon of her son. The Emperor said it was the man's second offence, and justice demanded his death.

'I don't ask for justice, 'I plead for mercy.'

'But', said the Emperor, 'he does not deserve mercy.'

'Sir,' cried the mother, 'it would not be mercy if he deserved it, and mercy is all I ask.

'Well, then,' said the Emperor, 'I will have mercy.' And her son was saved.

The great gift of Easter is hope – Christian hope which makes us have that confidence in God, in his ultimate triumph, and in his goodness and love, which nothing can shake. (Cardinal Basil Hume).

Thank You:

It was good to be back this year after two years of ceremonies without people present. It reminds us of the importance of people gathering together to pray and worship.

A sincere thank you to all who helped to make Holy Week and Easter Ceremonies so uplifting and prayerful.

To the Folkgroup, Choir, Cantors, Readers, Eucharistic Ministers and stewards thank you.

To the Altar Society for the beautiful display of flowers, to Patrick and Enda for their help with the fire and Holy Water.

A special word of thanks to Fiona and the young people from our parish who took part in the Holy Saturday Ceremony.

Finally, to Pdraig in the Sacristy thank you.

Easter Collection:

A sincere thank you for your continued generosity to the Easter Collection which goes towards the support of the Priests of the Parish.
