Thought:

Luke presents Jesus as a prophet, capable of reading the signs of the times, and one who offered wise and insightful advice on how to cope with difficult times.

Who are the people you see who act like this in the troubled times we live in today?

Maybe you yourself have been a calming influence in the face of turmoil within your family, parish, church, workplace, or elsewhere.

Can you claim that gift and give thanks for being such a person?

Jesus alerts his listeners to the transitory nature of human grandeur and splendour.

How have you been reminded of this truth? What lessons has this given you about life?

In any occupation troubles will come. Jesus encourages his listeners to stand firm in such circumstances, telling them 'your endurance will win you your lives'.

When you are in the midst of inner turmoil and/or outer trouble or opposition, what have you found gives you the strength and ability to endure?

Candles:

Last weekend at all Masses, we remembered all the people whose funerals took place here in our Church during the past 12 months. There was a candle for each bereaved family. The candles are available for collection by a family member in the Sanctuary.

Rosary in Cemetery for November:

The Rosary will be prayed in Assylinn (old) Cemetery on Sunday 13th November at 12.30 p.m.

Blessing of re-furbished seats for Cemetery will also take place.

Roscommon for Life are hosting a presentation entitled 'Redeeming The Culture of Life' in Hannon's Hotel, Roscommon on Friday 18th November at 8p.m. Guest speakers Megan Scallan (Life Institute), Ben Scallan (Gript Media) and Senator Ronan Mullen. All are welcome.

Tawnytaskin Community Centre:

We in Tawnytaskin Centre are having Mass and everyone is invited to attend. Mass will be celebrated on Friday 18th November at 8p.m.

We look forward to meeting you all again after such a long break.

After Mass, we will have tea/coffee and refreshments.
