Reflection:

On the cross Jesus endured insults and mockery.

Yet his heart remained open, even to his enemies.

He absorbed all the violence, transformed it, and returned it as love and forgiveness. One's pain can so easily turn into rage, so that one wants only to lash out blindly at whoever happens to be within range. From the depths of his own pain, Jesus reached out to comfort the thief. Some people are like sugar cane: even when crushed in the mill, what they yield is sweetness. Jesus stretches our capacity for compassion. He challenges our idea of love. Each of us has a great capacity for love. The pity is that it often goes unused.

By our love people will know that we are followers of Christ the King.

A sincere thank you to the Area Collector's for doing this work, and to all of you who have been so faithful and generous with your contributions in these difficult times, it is deeply appreciated.
