Vocation Sunday- Year of Vocations 2023 – 2024:

Good Shepherd Sunday is not merely about priesthood or religious life. Marriage and parenting are no easy option.

But generous families will inspire generous young people.

And self-sacrificing church personnel will inspire new heroes.

We have to be mad enough to speak of God's daunting dream and not be trapped in our cosy comfort zone.

Good Shepherd Sunday is not just about recruitment but about promoting communities that call young people to sanctity in their different vocations and in the concrete circumstances of their generation.

(Bishop Donal McKeown)

Eucharistic Adoration:

At Masses this weekend we renew our efforts to revitalise Eucharistic Adoration.

For some people it is a very important part of their Spiritual lives.

People are invited to give one hour per week in prayer in our 'Adoration Room' 11a.m. to 7p.m. from Monday to Saturday and Sunday 1p.m. to 7p.m.

Each of us have our own way of praying, we need to give it the time, We pray God's blessing.

Confirmation:

Thanks to all who helped out at Confirmation last weekend, teachers, Scoil na nAingéal Naofa choir, readers, Eucharistic ministers, parents, leaders who facilitate the preparation programme, Fr. Jonas, Rev. Frankline and Eithne Deane Catechist.

Elphin Diocesan Pilgrimage to Lourdes:

Pilgrimage under the leadership of Bishop Kevin, takes place from 23rd to 28th August. Direct flight from Knock to Lourdes with 5-night full board. Cost €859. Application forms available from the Sacristy or Parish Office or by contacting Joe Walsh tours on 01-2410800.
