Final Judgement:

The parable of the Last Judgement (adaptation)

For I was hungry, and you were obese;

Thirsty and you were watering your lawn,

A stranger and you called the police and were glad to see me taken away. Naked and you were saying, 'I don't have a thing to wear –

I must get some new clothes tomorrow'.

Ill and you asked, 'Is it contagious'

In prison and you said, 'That's where your kind belongs'

First Friday: Friday 2nd December is the First Friday of the month.

Communion Calls:

Fr. Gerry will make his Communion Calls on Thursday 30th November and Friday 1st December.

Adoration:

Due to preparations for Tommy Fleming Christmas Concert on Thursday next, Adoration will close at 2p.m.

Area Distributors:

Boxes of envelopes, calendars and Christmas Collection envelopes are available for collection in The Committee Room.

A sincere thank you to the Area Distributor's for doing this work, and to all of you who have been so faithful and generous with your contributions, it is deeply appreciated.

Remembrance Candle:

Family members are invited to take home remembrance candle and name of their loved one from our memory tree if they haven't already done so after all masses this weekend.

Benemerenti Award:

On Saturday next 2nd December at the Vigil Mass our Bishop Kevin will present the Benemerenti Medal to Breege Duffy in recognition of her commitment to the Folkgroup for 40 years.

After Mass, there will be refreshments served in the Resource Centre and everyone is welcome to come along.
