Pope Francis R.I.P.:

It was with sadness that we learned of the death of Pope Francis on Monday morning.

As he began, his greeting was 'good evening' as he asked people to pray for him, a true pastor of the people. Bishop of Rome.

He brought with him a new attitude and outlook – a humble man who didn't want pomp or power.

His focus was on the tenderness and mercy of God – all life was sacred including all of creation.

He called the Church a field hospital open and inclusive of everybody. A peoples Church – a poor Church, for the poor.

His gift to the Church of the Synodal journey. (Walking together and listening to one another). A new freedom to discuss and learn.

'May he rest in peace'
