Reflection:

'It is the Lord!' The beloved disciple recognises the friendly and helpful man at the lakeside.

As of yet it had not dawned on Simon Peter or the others who it is.

'It is the Lord!' Yes, words of recognition, but much more: seeing with eyes of faith. His recognition spurs on the others to recognise the risen Jesus with eyes of faith.

Aren't there moments in times of need when help seems to come from an unexpected source and we sense the presence of the Lord.

The unexpected catch of fish was such a moment for the disciples.

Pray for light to recognise such a moment in the recent past.

'Come and have breakfast.'

A homely invitation! Jesus knew the hunger of these men after a night's fishing. He knows our needs too. Tell the risen Jesus of yours right now. Wait quietly to receive Jesus' to be linger in his presence as he looks at you with a smile of affection. (Irish Jesuits)

Tawnytaskin Community Centre:

Rambling House on Sunday 11th May at 3p.m. An afternoon of music, song, dance and storytelling with Gene Sheerin.

All proceeds go to Mayo/Roscommon Hospice. Refreshments served and a raffle on the day. Tickets €10 and available from Ann on 086-8130005 or Mary on 085-1618420 or on the door.

BOOK LAUNCH IN BOYLE LIBRARY: Join us on Thursday 8th May at 6.45pm for the launch of local author Catriona Byrne's debut novel 'Going Home', a heart-warming tale of friendship, resilience and the power of second chances, set in the welcoming beauty of a small Irish town. There will be a reading with the author, followed by an FAQ.

Volunteer for Hospice: Mayo Roscommon Hospice need your help with National Sunflower days for Hospice 6th & 7th June. Could you give a few hours of your time on either/both days and help raise funds in support of Palliative Care Services in your area or any area that suits you? Call now on 094 9388666 or email info@hospice.ie

Thank You:

The Friends of Assylinn Cemetery would like to extend their thanks to all who supported their recent church Gate Collection. The amount raised was €2760. A special word of thanks to everyone who volunteered.
