Trinity Sunday:

In Celtic Christianity, Trinitarian Spirituality was very alive among the people. The Trinity of the Celtic tradition was not distant and inaccessible but an essential part of their everyday life, and was expressed in their blessings, incantations and prayers. (Helen Greal) This intimacy of the 'Three' is seen in this beautiful anonymous prayer that has come down to us from the past:

Three folds in the cloth, yet one cloth is there

Three joints in the finger, yet one finger fair

Three leaves in the shamrock, yet one shamrock to wear,

Frost, snowflake and ice, all in water their origin share,

Three persons in God, to God alone we make prayer.

Feast of Corpus Christi:

On Sunday next 22nd June we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi.

At the end of the 11.30a.m. Mass there will be Benediction.

Cemetery Sunday:

There will be Mass and Blessing of Graves on Sunday 29th June at 3p.m. in Assylinn (New) Graveyard.
